I N T R O D U C T I O N

We, the class of nineteen hundred and fifty, proudly present this our publication of the high school annual.

We have chosen for our title "Spirit of '76," to commemorate the building of the first school in 1873. This would mean that the class of 1873-74 was the first class and thus make us the seventysixth.

We are happy to make available the alumni news of fifty-seven classes. These class enrollments have been obtained from diplomas, class pictures, alumni association records, and the county superintendent's office. We apologize for any errors there may be. We have done our best, within the time allowed, even to the extent of burning midnight oil, at homes of parents who were patient enough to welcome us a second time.

We are sincerely grateful to all who have aided in any way in the production of our book, which without their help would have been impossible.

If, while scanning our many pages and pictures, you feel a thrill of fond memories returning, we will feel that our job has been well done.

HISTORY OF PLEASANTVILLE SCHOOLS

From early days Pleasantville citizens were school minded. Just by way of background to our present school system the earliest school was built about $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile west of town, known as the Methodist Schoolhouse.

In 1823, Aaron Benedict, who was perhaps most interested in the founding of our town, built a log schoolhouse, east of town, presenting it to the settlers, reserving the right for a Baptist Meeting house.

In 1844 it was moved to the corner of School and State Streets, and in use until 1847. Austin Merrick was the first teacher and taught 20 years.

Classes also were held for many years in the old Methodist Church, built in 1846, near the location of the present church. In that year M. C. Beebe came from Fabius, N. Y. and taught until 1854, when he was elected first County Superintendent. He was the first principal with two teachers when the new Union School was built in 1853.

This school, near where our present grade school building stands, was a two-room, frame building, and in 1861 a second story was added, at a cost of $2,500. The enrollment at this time was 180.

In 1869 the school had 150 pupils. The two upper rooms, the high school, were taught by Professor Davis and Miss Mary Haslett. The two lower rooms, by Miss E. Byles and Miss J. McKenzie.

During the Oil Excitement, 1865 to about 1870 (with the peak of the excitement in 1863), the schools were rather neglected, but in 1872 the German born citizens, by subscriptions, financed the building of the German School House, at a cost of $2,300, built on School St., and used only 18 months. In 1877 it was sold to the borough for the price of the transfer, and moved to Main Street, where it served as the Town Hall, until the construction of the new Municipal Building on State Street, in 1935-36. Then the Main Street building was presented by the borough council to the young people of the town.

In 1872 also, on June 8, the Board of Directors of the Union School met, and decided it would be necessary to erect a new building, and on August 29, a contract was awarded for $23,500. The total cost, was $33,000.

A fine new brick building was erected in 1873, consisting of five rooms and a large hall, Newton's History of Venango Co. (1879) says of the curriculum,--"in addition to careful teaching of the common branches, natural sciences, drawing, bookkeeping, higher mathematics, Latin, and Greek, special attention is given to Normal Classes for those intending to teach, pupils preparing for college, and those who desire a good business education."

The first principal in the new building was Professor A. T. Stewart, and "On the faculty at this time was Professor Francis Newton Thorpe, Ph. D. who later became highly distinguished in the field of American Political history and government."

For several years after Prof. Stewart, according to older citizens, classes did not graduate, "They just finished and had a celebration."

Most students received diplomas, but a few did not. Subjects taught were English, history, algebra, plane geometry, trigonometry, natural philosophy, or physics, physical geography, Latin, and some bookkeeping.

Members of the first class of which we have record finished on Dec. 22, 1876, and received diplomas. Their names will be given later in the Alumni History.

Approximate dates of the terms of the principals were A. T. Stewart, 1873-76; H. F. Morton, 1876-78; W. C. Gorman, 1878-80; C. G. Kingman, 1880-81; George B. Lord, 1881-83; John L. Mattax, 1884-88; J. W. Lackey, 1889-92; J. L. Hadley, 1892-94. Under Prof. Hadley, in 1893 the second year was added to the high school. Following Prof. Hadley was Prof. John D. Humphrey, 1894-96. Prof. P. E. Hovis was here from 1896-1900 and Floyd Atwell, 1901-05.

The class of 1901 under Prof. Atwell was the first to be honored by a Baccalaureate sermon, delivered in the Methodist Church. This class was also first to have honor students chosen by high marks; heretofore they were chosen by popularity vote of the class members.

From 1905 to 1909 the principal was Louis E. Cross, and under him in 1907, the third year was added, financed by subscriptions solicited by the School Board, from public spirited citizens. There were no graduates in 1908 as they went back for post graduate work after the third year was added.

First class to graduate from the three year course was the class of 1909. Because the class of 1910 consisted of only two members, Ella Weekley and Charles McIntyre, the class of 1911 was graduated with them, with the understanding they must return the following year to make up their third year credits. The class of 1910 was the first to entertain the seniors at the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Mr. Cross, a man of vision, made many permanent improvements in the school system. From old desks he made fine cases to hold the Geological display given free by the state. Much interested in music, he fostered and directed a Choral Society, to raise money for books for the school libraries, and as a result many fine books were added. He was also founder of the Alumni Association.

Mr. Cross was followed by Mr. T. E. Kingsley, a young man just out of college, and full of enthusiasm for his work. Under him, in 1914 the Fourth Year was added to the high school, making it equal to any of the best.

The first basketball team was organized in the school year, 1909-1910, with the following as members: Arthur Dutton, F. O. Rooker, Clarence Murling, Harold Folwell, La Vern White, and Stanley Shelmadine.

Other fine principals followed in order, 1918, Miss Margerite Shelmadine; 1919, V. Blaine Leifler; 1920-21, P. M. Woodward; 1922-23, W. L. West; 1924-33, A. L. Jeffrey; Neil Kunselman 1934.

Graduating Exercises were held in the Opera House, located on the upper floor of the Holeman Block, (now Citizen's Bank Building). The class paid for the orchestra, (usually Coleman's from Titusville) and the School Board for the rental of Opera House. The last class to graduate in the Opera House was the class of 1913. After that it was condemned as unsafe, and exercises were held in the Presbyterian "Lecture Room," and other churches. In 1928, the new gymnasium was built, attached to the grade school building, at a cost of about $50,000. Total contributions were over $21,000. A. L. Jeffrey was principal at this time.

Miss Jesse Stoddard taught music which was first financed by generous citizens and later through the efforts of the first Pleasantville Woman's Club. This was done from 1911 to 1918. From 1918-20, the music was taught by home room teachers. In the fall of 1920, Miss Edna E. Binner was the permanent music teacher.

Arthur J. Matteson was Supervising Principal from 1935-47. In 1942 Home Economics and Industrial Arts were added to the curriculum. Latin was dropped in 1947. In the fall of 1947, under Mr. Matteson, and sponsored by the P. T. A., a fine cafeteria was established in the grade school building.

On May 28, 1940, the gym was totally destroyed by fire of undetermined origin, but the grade school building was not badly damaged. It was decided to construct a new high school building.

The School Boards of Pleasantville Borough, Oil Creek, Allegheny and Southwest Townships, met and discussed possibilities of building a consolidated school. As it would be necessary to finance it by issuing bonds, a special election was held August 15, 1940, and all districts except Southwest voted favorably, Pleasantville was bonded for $18,000, Oil Creek for $30,000, and Allegheny for $16,000. Contracts totalled $89,939.

O U R T E A C H E R

The sculptor toils with marble and clay
To build a form divine;
The artist wields his skillful brush
The poet his lyrics and line.
The engineer lays the bridge of steel
That girds this land of ours,
The architect plans the building grand
With its massive walls and towers.
The airman spans the ocean blue
While a wondering world looks on,
The surgeon saves with matchless skill
The life that is almost gone.
But our teacher's aim is higher still
Supreme in God's great plan,
She moulds the gift that inspires them all
The immortal mind of man!

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1950, wish to dedicate this yearbook, "The Spirit of '76," to our class adviser, Ruth W. Atkins, whom we have learned to regard as a friend and teacher. Under her competent leadership we have been inspired to work and learn together. Her fine ideals will be present in our halls for many years to come. We will all remember her ability to see through difficult problems and situations. So, as we leave the school, we gratefully pay tribute to her through the dedication of this annual.

MR. IGOE'S FAREWELL TO CLASS OF '50

To the Class of 1950:

The fundamental purpose of any school is to train its graduates to take their places as competent citizens in a changing society. A school is judged by the type of citizen it produces.

Naturally, part of your formal education during the past twelve years has been designed to help you make a living. But we have made, also, an effort to provide educational experiences which we hope have taught you how to live a life.

My parting message to you, therefore, is a challenge. Will you, as graduates about to leave us to become members of a democratic society, continue to live lives which will bring credit and honor to this school, your alma mater?

My sincere good wishes go with you for success and happiness in the years which lie ahead.

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM D. IGOE,
Supervising Principal.

We have nicely-heated rooms in the cold, frosty mornings of winter after we trudge up the snow-shoveled school walk. We then have clean floors and clean blackboards to greet us in every class room. This is all due to the constant efforts of our two custodians, Mrs. Umstead and Mr. Gilson.

B U S D R I V E R S

Except for a little rain that has made the back roads soft, this winter has been especially fine for the bus drivers. The three bus drivers are Kenneth (Bud) Weldon, Louis Strawbridge, and Bruce Meabon. There are two trips for each bus morning and night. Mr. Weldon, the owner, drives one bus in the morning while Louis Strawbridge drives it at night. Bruce Meabon drives the other bus morning and night. Mrs. Margaret Baker drives her car to bring children from Enterprise and Tightpinch to school.

Last spring Mr. Weldon took all juniors and seniors, who ride on the bus, to Niagara Falls. He plans to make this a bi-annual affair.

The cafeteria was equipped in the fall of 1947 in the lunch room of the grade school building. The finances were furnished by individuals and organizations of Pleasantville and vicinity. It was sponsored by the P. T. A.

The cafeteria was opened on January 1, 1948, under the management of Mrs. Poor. Mrs. Kummer was the manager in 1948-1949. Mrs. Self was manager for a month until she became ill. Mrs. Watson is the present manager.

Mrs. Bean and Mrs. Daley also work in the cafeteria. Two seniors, Albertha Coulter and Jane Sparks have been faithful helpers in the cafeteria since it was started.

About 175 students and teachers eat their lunch there each day.

In October we had a weiner roast at Splitstone's. Because of rain, we spent it indoors, except Mr. Durinzi, who braved a storm to count pigs.

Early in the year we started practicing our Junior Play, "Let Me Out of Here," a three act comedy. On November the third we presented it to a full house, under the competent direction of Mrs. Durinzi, our class advisor.

Our class had a theater party at Oil City in March. We enjoyed it and the refreshments afterwards.

We entertained the seniors with a Junior-Senior Banquet at The Colonel Drake Hotel on May the fifth.

It gives us great satisfaction to anticipate returning next year as seniors.

The nature study club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Atkins, is composed of twenty members. Because our club is small, we have an opportunity for individual work.

We have taken several field trips and discovered many interesting plants, animals, and rocks.

The club members learned to operate a microscope, and in so doing were able to study animals too small to be seen with the naked eye.

Clair Fiske brought his pigeon to school for one club meeting. We studied it and its habits.

HUNTING AND FISHING

The Hunting and Fishing Club was organized for the first time this year under the sponsorship of Mr. McDonald. It is the largest club in the school, consisting of sixty-one members from grades seven through twelve.

A fee of forty cents a semester is paid by each member. This money is used to rent moving pictures on wild life.

On November 14th a game supper was held in the Home Economics room. The game was supplied by members of the club, and the meal was prepared by the girls under the supervision of Mrs. Baldy.

The officers were elected as follows:

President ----- Roger Henderson

Vice President ----- James Wescoat

The Pleasantville Players, a club that has been in our school for the past two terms, endeavors to develop dramatic ability in the individual student and to help other students appreciate dramatics.

The activities for the year have consisted of two one-act plays, a field trip, and a Valentine party.

The beginning project for the year was the weaving of purses. We then decorated the bulletin boards at Hallowe'en, Christmas, Thanksgiving, and national holidays. The club has also assisted in making advertising posters for the different clubs and activities. Other projects for the year were abstract drawings, modern art, and the making of model homes.

The Press Club is composed of nine members from grades seven through twelve.

Four papers are issued each year by this group: a Thanksgiving paper, a Christmas paper, a Valentine paper, and an Easter paper.

Every Wednesday morning in club period, the club is busily at work drawing pictures, composing poems, typing copy, figuring crossword puzzles, and writing stories. Part of our outside work is the collecting of news from the twelve home rooms, the various clubs, and from all the magazines and papers that we can find. Mrs. Durinzi sends us material that she has collected in her English classes that she feels would be of interest to the Press Club and to the student body.

The 1949-50 basketball team was coached by Mr. Durinzi, assisted by Mr. Myers. The team, playing for the second year in the Crawford County League, had a winning season. They finished in a second place tie with Saegertown, winning 7 games and losing 3, which qualified them for the county tournament at Edinboro. Here they were defeated 33 to 32 by Conneaut Lake in the first game.

Prospects for another good season next year are bright. Returning for next year's team are George Tobin, Jim Kantor, Bill Caldwell, Gordon Atkins, Jim Wescoat, Jack Kummer, and Larry Roberts. Wendell Waddell and Roger Henderson are lost by graduation.

The Varsity Club began the year with only five members, but early in the year the club voted in nine others who were eligible for membership. This made a total of fourteen members.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Myers and Mr. Durinzi, the club sold pencils and furnished programs at all home basketball games.

The officers were elected as follows:

President ----- Roger Henderson
Vice President ----- Wilbur Moore
Secretary and Treasurer ----- Garry Bunce

As a token of our appreciation for the faithful service rendered us by the seniors through their high school years, the club presented them warm-up jackets designed with school colors and the school emblem.

Since last year the band has increased under the direction of Mr. McDonald.

The band played for the Junior Play, the pep meetings, and has prepared us with the fighting spirit for our basketball games.

Three of the members, Jane Holtz, Vianne Johnston, and Sally Johnston, attended District Festival, held at the State Teachers College, Edinboro, Pennsylvania.

Some of the band members joined with the Girls' Chorus to attend a concert in Pittsburgh.

We expect to play for Commencement and Memorial Day exercises.

Six band members will graduate this year.

DISTRICT BAND CONCERTS

James Thompson, Jane Holtz, and Vianne Johnston are the first students of Pleasantville to attend District Band, sponsored by P. M. E. A. It was held in Wesleyville on March 23-24, 1949. On January 4-5, 1950, Sally Johnston, Vianne Johnston, and Jane Holtz attended District Band at Edinboro. On March 2-3, Alice Dean, Aldene Klingler and Jane Holtz attended District Chorus at Lawrence Park. There were about 250 voices participating. These activities consist of two days of practice by the students from thirty schools and a concert given by them on the second evening. These students have greatly enjoyed these District Concerts and we hope that in the future, students will have the opportunity to attend them also.

The year 1949-1950 was a busy and a fruitful one for the Senior Chorus. With a membership of almost 40 girls, it took part in many school activities including the annual operetta, Christmas program and Spring Festival. With music assuming an ever increasing importance in the school curriculum, this year's group can feel justly proud of maintaining high musical standards. It is perhaps significant that every girl in grades 9 to 12 is a member of this organization. Academically, chorus is now considered an integral part of the total school program.

The chorus activities for the year included two trips to Pittsburgh to hear symphonic concerts. In February, the chorus heard the Philadelphia Orchestra and in May they heard the N. B. C. Symphony under the direction of Toscanini.

Several of the chorus members were selected to represent Pleasantville High School at the annual District Choral Festival in Lawrence Park, Erie.

The choral repertoire embraces the music of the 16th, 17th, 18th, and 19th centuries as compositions by contemporary composers.

C L A S S H I S T O R Y

On September 3 twenty Freshmen came through the back door as big and bold as Paul Bunyan. We knew when we graduated from the 8th grade we would be an outstanding class. So, what did we have to be afraid of? We finally settled down and elected the following officers: President, Wendell Wad-dell; Vice President, Vianne Johnston; Secretary-Treasurer, Roger Henderson.

We chose as our class colors brown and gold, and for class flower, the yellow rose.

During the school year we lost the following students: Doris Allen, Betty Burkett, Florence Grant, Robert Morris, William Houston.

After a year's trials and tribulations, we took on a new shade of lighter green.

Mr. Matteson acted as our class advisor.

When school began this fall we had 18 members. During the year we were sorry to lose Beverly Trieskey, but we were happy to gain Gordon McIntyre.

Mrs. Durinzi acted as our class advisor.

Late in September we initiated the Freshmen. There were sixteen very green people who constituted this class.

During the year we sponsored several school dances and held numerous class parties. Although this was a busy year for us we found time to elect the following officers: President, Vianne Johnston; Vice President, Wilbur Moore; Secretary-Treasurer, Roger Henderson.

And now they call us Juniors and Mrs. Atkins was class advisor. During that year we also sponsored school dances, and sold home-made candy at noon.

Then to show our dramatic ability and make some money on the side we presented "Just Ducky," a three act comedy as our class play.

Then with our hard earned money we held a banquet for the Seniors.

In the early spring we received our class rings and then we had a little hope that we would make the grade.

Now we are Seniors and Mrs. Atkins is again acting as our class advisor. Under her guidance and supervision we elected the following officers: President, Wilbur Moore; Vice President, Roger Henderson; Secretary, Audeene Lore; Treasurer, Alice Dean.

At all the home basketball games we sold refreshments.

As a gift to the school and to Mrs. Atkins we presented her with a desk at Christmas time.

Our graduating activities included Class Night, Baccalaureate, and Commencement.

Early in May the Juniors served us a very nice banquet, which we appreciated very much.

I, Albertha Coulter, will my slimness to my sister, Elva.

I, Alice Dean, leave my giggles to Barbara Fogle.

I, Harry Ewing, bequeath my witty remarks to Bill Self to supplement his ample supply.

I, Warren Harvey, leave the twinkle in my eyes to J. D. Klingler.

I, Roger Henderson, will my ability to jump center to Jack Kummer.

I, Jane Holtz, leave what I've left of the chemistry lab to other experimenting students.

I, Carol Hoovler, bequeath my talent of tooting a horn to Jim Wescoat.

I, Jack Ifft, bequeath my knowledge of fly anatomy to Howard Ewing.

I, Vianne Johnston, leave the yearbook headaches to any unsuspecting but patient Junior.

I, Aldene Klingler, bequeath my typing skill to Bill Caldwell.

I, Audeene Lore, will my cheerleading talent and quietness to Patti Burt.

I, Richard Mangel, leave my sly little grin and brilliant ideas to the '51 year book editor.

I, Wilbur Moore, bequeath my physique to Eugene Dean.

I, Jane Sparks, will my lady-like manners to Marie Confer.

I, David Thompson, leave my ability to skip school to Dottie Splitstone.

I, Wendell Waddell, will my ability to work hard getting out of work to Howard Hilton.

REMEMBER WHEN:

Roger Henderson was bashful, but got dirt in his eye once in a while.
Our party at the Boy Scout cabin—watch out for the Indians.
We embalmed a garter snake.
We were Freshmen and some of the boys spent English class in a book cupboard.
Aldene and Alice bawled buckets of salty water for Mr. Matteson because he and the Home Ec. teacher agreed to disagree.
Mr. Durinzi got his P's and Q's mixed up and took off for a game at Sugar Grove.
Vianne took the straight way home from Hickory.
We all looked so guilty on December 20.
Miss Kovach got her signals crossed and held a fire drill when Mr. Igoe rang for the janitor.
We made extemporaneous speeches in English Class.
Headaches were common among the yearbook staff.
We all met Mr. Igoe the first day.
Mr. Matteson's jolly laugh echoed through the halls.
Richard Mangel was all wet as far as selling yearbooks is concerned.
Carol and Jack were supposed to be looking for stars!!
Jack and Janie Sparks were made one.
Dave and Tiny weren't arguing.
Mrs. Durinzi was knocked down at noon with a basketball.
Albertha filled in for all the members of the Office Practice class to take the office bulletin.
Warren Harvey visited school.
Garry Bunce didn't know an answer.
Friday Art class did modern art.
Mr. Myers excused his class when Mr. Igoe rang for the janitor.
Audeene Lore had an extended Christmas vacation.
Harry got a teddy-bear hair cut.
Aldene and Alice wondered what the boys did in gym class.
The junior girls successfully turned somersaults.
The seniors went to Oil City to have their pictures taken.
The salesmen thought the seniors were hard to get along with.
The boys in chemistry class made chlorine.
Chuck McFate threw a left-handed hook shot and won the game for Rouseville.
Roger felt sorry for Tidioute and gave them two points.
Windy didn't show up for patrol duty on the coldest morning of the year.
Jack had trouble with the furnace on December 9.
Wilbur's car exploded in Titusville one noon hour.
Jane and Vianne got heartburn and it spread.
Dave tried to drill a hole through his finger.
Audeene had to write out all the P. O. D. questions.
Youngsville's basketball team walked off the floor with four minutes yet to play.
Dottie Lou fell in the fish pond at Tionesta.
The seniors had one whole day to work on the yearbook.
Miss Williams couldn't show her face after the Penn State-Pitt football game.
Dave turned Oil City upside down looking for helium. LUCKY JUNIORS.
Mr. McDonald had so many music stands he didn't know where to put them.
Albertha came to gym class without a comb.
Mrs. Atkins kept all the boys after school—now her desks look like new.
Miss Kovach made a trip to the South African diamond mine.

On December 20, the class of '50 presented a gift to the school by moving into the science room a beautiful new desk and chair which is to be a permanent fixture in that room and used by Mrs. Atkins as long as she teaches in Pleasantville High School.

HISTORY OF PLEASANTVILLE SCHOOL

W. Holmes Crosby of Oil City, architect for the first gym, drew the plans, and a general construction contract for $59,800 was let to a Meadville firm, heating, ventilating, and plumbing went to a Jamestown Co. These totaled $20,139, in addition to the general contract.

On the afternoon of October 8, 1940, ground was broken for the fine new building. The address was given by Rev. Perry J. Cook, Pastor of Shamburg Christian Church. The first shovelful of earth was removed by Supervising Principal, Arthur J. Matteson.

On April 4, 1941, a little less than six months later, at inspiring ceremonies, the cornerstone was laid for the new consolidated building.

The schools of Tyrell Farm, Cattaraugus, Fleming, Shamburg, and Redfield, the little red schoolhouses which would soon be no more, were present, and there was virtually 100% representation by the Pleasantville schools. As part of the program an interesting history of the Pleasantville schools was read by Robert Smith, a senior, who won first prize offered by the Consolidated Schools Boards. Arthur Wagenknecht won second prize. It is from his history that many of these facts are quoted.

The formal laying of the cornerstone was conducted by John Kantor, president of the Allegheny School Board. Contents of the box to be placed in the cornerstone were announced by Geo. Waddell as follows: Names of present students, instructors, schoolboards of Pleasantville and three townships, (typed on vellum by William Spence), Pleasantville School, History of Pleasantville School, Robert Smith, Senior; Copy of Oil City Derrick, Oct. 29, 1940; Copy of Titusville Herald, April 4, 1941, Copy of information sent to bidders on bonds sold by districts; and condensed reports of financial status of districts, number of coins in current circulation, bottle of sand from oilwells, Pleasantville district; postage stamps of 1941 to date, and key to the proposed building.

Allegheny Township: President, John Kantor, Secretary, Oscar Carson, Treasurer, Citizen's Bank of Pleasantville; Oil Creek Township: President, Clair Caldwell, Secretary, Miss Clara Monroe, Treasurer, W. H. Fleming. Pleasantville Borough: President, C. C. Hogg, Secretary, Geo. Waddell, Treasurer, Citizen's Bank.

After the burning of the first gym until the new building was finished, classes were held in the Young People's Building, I. O. O. F. Building, and the grade school building.

"In a simple but sincere ceremony, February 23, 1942, witnessed by more than 500 persons, the new school building of the Pleasantville Joint School District was dedicated. C. C. Hogg made the address dedicating "this building to the advancement of youth—mentally, morally, physically, and socially to the pursuit of education; and in memory of Robert W. Clark, Jr., who gave his life for his country at Pearl Harbor, henceforth, the school will be known as The Robert Clark Memorial High School."

Hon. William Parker of Oil City, Justice of the State Supreme Court, was the principal speaker. The American Legion Color Guard was present from Titusville and Oil City. At this time there were 33 former students in the armed forces.

For three quarters of an hour prior to the program, an open house was held throughout the two buildings. Of special interest were the shop, home economics room, the new heating plant, the library and the communications system.

The Grade School Building now contains Room No. 1, (Music Room); No. 2, (Art Room); No. 3, First Grade; No. 4, Second Grade; No. 5, Third Grade; No. 6, Fourth Grade; No. 7, Fifth Grade; No. 8, Sixth Grade. In this building are also the Teacher's Room, Health Room, Home Economics Room, Shop, Cafeteria, and Boiler Room.

The Robert Clark Memorial High School contains the following rooms: Rooms 9 and 10, Classrooms; Room 11, Commercial; Room 12, Science Lab.; library, principal's office, boys room, girls room, supply room, store room, proposed teacher's room, and gymnasium.

Mr. William D. Igoe came as supervising principal in 1948. The grade school enrollment at the present time is 198; the high school, 119, making a total of 317.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Alumni Association was instigated by Mr. L. E. Cross and on Monday evening, Feb. 25, 1907, a meeting was held for the purpose of forming an Alumni Association in Pleasantville. The first Banquet was held at Fieldmore Hotel, which stood on the site of the present Bashline-Shrum Clinic.

Officers were at the time of it's founding: President, Miss Aileen McGuire; Secretary and Treasurer, Joe McMillan; Principal, L. E. Cross.

Members of Executive, Banquet, Decoration Reception and Entertainment Committees for this first Banquet were: Aileen McGuire, Julia (Beebe) Eichbaum, John Dack, Elizabeth Wagenknecht, Allie Hatch, Jessie B. Byers, James L. Wilbur, Jo MacMillan, Will S. Corwin, Maude (Shattuck) House, Agnes MacMillan, Mae McGuire, Chas. W. Noyes, Walter Rabe, Lois Dutton, Archibald MacMillan, Mary (Noyes) Coe, Margaret Elmynra McIntyre, Susie (Stowell) Reed, Arthur McGuire, Mary Dutton, and Mary Lamb.

The opening announcement sent out to the graduates contained the names of graduates from 1893-1906, and eligible for Alumni membership.

In the class of 1893 were, Miss Ora Dunham, Carrie (Hoffman) Walker, Miss Bessie Sutton and James L. Wilbur. Then the names of the Classes of 1894, and 1896, and from then on in rotation. In 1895 and 1897 there were no graduates. After a good deal of research it seems to be the opinion that perhaps the curriculum was changed and classes closed in these years, or some thought it might have been financial reasons.

The class of 1876 is the first on record to finish, and receive diplomas under Prof. A. T. Stewart, the following finished on Dec. 22, 1876: Charles Dodge, Will Connelley, Fred Wilson, Allen Gilbert, Miss Susie Keifer, Miss Clara H. Willoughby, Miss Lena Newkirk, Miss Jean Lockwood, Henry Sheffield, Ed Merrill. This class was considered eligible to the Alumni Association as they were awarded diplomas.

Susie Keifer, taught school, married Anson Thompson, deceased; Eugenia Lockwood, attended Sugar Grove Seminary, married Rev. R. J. White, was active in religious work, died Sept. 10, 1939; Lena Newkirk, married Arthur G. Banks, died in 1930; Clara H. Willoughby, married R. M. Davidson, her stories, articles and poems appeared in several leading magazines; Frederick Wilson, graduated from Lafayette College, Easton Pa., became successful business man, died in 1927.

The Alumni Banquet was quite the social event in Pleasantville and non-members were honored to be invited. Those eligible to attend the banquet were graduates, past principals, present principals, school directors, teachers during the current year, County Superintendent and township directors.

Following the first banquet, in Fieldmore Hotel, others followed in the Presbyterian Chapel, and various church parlors, and a dance was usually held in the I. O. O. F. Hall.

Much thought was expended by the entertainment committee to secure the best possible toastmaster, speakers and music for the program.

The Association provided roses for the graduates and all those attending. The graduates were served at a special table and the room was decorated in their class colors.

Miss Kate Bumstead, of the class of 1906 wrote the Alumni Song, to the tune of "Where The River Shannon Flows," and for many years it was an accepted part of the program.

Unfortunately, records from 1907 to 1920 seem to be lost, so there are perhaps some facts of interest which will not be related.

The Sixteenth Annual Banquet held in the Presbyterian "Lecture Room," on May 27, 1921, followed as usual by the business meeting, is worthy of note.

At this meeting the scholarship, which had evidently been proposed the year before, was fully decided upon, giving a $100 to the honor student each year, to be applied on his tuition in the first year of college or technical school. In the 1922 minutes, we find that it was further decided to extend it to the second honor student, if not used by the first honor student within one year, and if not accepted by the second honor student, it was to revert back to the scholarship fund.

Also in this year (1922) the Alumni unanimously voted to establish a borrowing fund (later called Rotary Fund), from which alumni members may borrow money to help defray college expenses. The first application was made in 1923, and the first committee for the administration of the fund was James L. Wilbur, John Holtz, and George Waddell.

In 1926 it was decided that the person making use of the scholarship should attend some school requiring a high school diploma. Also at this meeting a motion was made to invite the ministers of the town to future banquets.

The Scholarship Fund underwent many vicissitudes, and for lack of financial support, was finally dropped in 1932. In this year it was voted that the remainder of the fund be added to the Rotary Fund. At this time there had been about $500 loaned through the Rotary Fund.

After the Gymnasium was built, the programs and dance were held there, following the banquet, served in some church.

Since the first books were lost, a new constitution and by-laws were drafted in 1938 by Frances Deiter, Mary Queen Wilson, and Helen Waddell, and were adopted as proposed. Plays for raising Rotary Fund were faithfully kept up until 1936.

Attendance gradually declined, especially during the war years. Older members who had worked hard through the years felt they had done their part and newer members, perhaps did not have the same enthusiasm, so the Association gradually declined, for lack of funds and of persons to take office.

The last banquet was held in the Presbyterian Chapel on May 31, 1940, served by ladies of the United Brethren Church. There were 91 present. A fitting memorial was given for members of the first graduating class of 1876.

There was no dance as the high school gym had burned the week before. On June 7, 1941, a special meeting was held at the chapel to discuss financing the banquet for that year. A play or minstrel was suggested as soon as the new gym was available. The following officers were nominated and approved: President, Carl Burrows; Vice President, Frances Reynolds; Secretary, Virginia Shaw; Treasurer, Eugene Fogle.

The Association has never been disbanded. Several attempts were made to call a meeting but not enough interest was manifested.

It is regrettable that such a fine organization could not have continued, as it was really an honor for a town the size of Pleasantville to support such a flourishing alumni association.

Mildred Delia Beebe, 1910
